

Grammar Webquest

Process

To begin your EXTREME adventure, check out this recent video of a record breaking freefall. Click on the picture to see.

If the link connected to the picture did not work you can see the video by clicking here.

1. Begin by watching a video of Tim and Moby who will explain the Parts of Speech. Ask your teacher for the activity sheets you will need to complete this assignment.
 - You need to have three sheets of paper.
 - Vocabulary Sheet - take notes while watching video on this paper
 - Activity Sheet - Label It: do this after the video
 - Graphic Organizer Sheet - Elephants: Brainstorm, follow the example.
 - Watch the video - Click here. Don't forget to take notes on the Vocabulary Sheet
 - Take the Graded Quiz - Click here. Email your results to me.
 - Do the other two worksheets: Activity Sheet and Graphic Organizer Sheet
 - Turn in all three sheets of paper to your teacher.
2. Great Job! Time to create a Wacky Tale. Use what you have learned. You may pick any title you want. You will print your story. Ask your teacher for help if you do not know how to do it.
 - Begin by clicking here.
 - Ask your teacher to help you print when you are done.

3. Practice what you have learned. You will do every level in this Parts of Speech activity. After you have completed every level you will click on "details" and print your results.
- Begin by clicking here.
 - Click on "details" and print your results.

Time for EXTREME swimming.

Click on the picture to watch Gold Medalist, Missy Franklin

4. Time to review Nouns and Verbs. Your job is to do the following activities as a review.
- First, you will review the different type of Nouns. Make sure you look at every kind of noun. Practice Naming Nouns, click here.
 - Next, you will play a game of Basketball with Nouns. Click here.
 - Finally, Clean up your Grammar! You will practice with nouns and verbs. Make sure you know the difference 🤔. Click here.

Time for EXTREME base jumping.

Click on the picture to see the video.

5. Adjectives and Nouns have an extreme relationship. Do you know what it is? Do the following activities to find out.
- School House Rock - need some help? This video is fun and a great help. Click here.
 - Read about Nouns and Adjectives - take notes in your Word Study. There are four pages, click on each one. Your notes need to show that you understand what those terms mean. Make sure you right examples too. To begin click here.

- Show me you understand, take the Nouns and Adjectives Quiz. Click here.
- Great Job! Play the Nouns and Adjectives game. Don't get trapped! Click here.
- Now try your luck at basketball - Comparative Adjectives, click here.

Time for EXTREME surfing.

Click on the picture to see a video of a great surfer.

6. Adverbs and Adjectives are confused often. Do you know the difference? In your word study write the definition in your own words after you do the following.
- School House Rock - Adverbs: learn what they mean. Click here.
 - The next Adverbs Activity has two parts. At the bottom of the quiz you will see "next exercise" click on that to do the 2nd part. To begin, click here.

Time for EXTREME bike riding.

Motorbikes! Click on the picture to see.

7. Let's do some EXTREME spelling. Enter your player name. Print your results. Do your best to help the bees build quickly in the Spelling Bees game.

- To begin click here.
- Don't forget, print your results.

Time for EXTREME falling.

This skier gets caught in snow and falls. Keep your eye on him, he gets lost in the snow and gets back out! Click on the picture to see.

8. Sentences! We all love sentences. Do you know what it means to have a complete sentence? Do you know the difference between a simple and compound sentence? What are conjunctions? You will learn the answers to these questions with the following activities. (Take notes in your Word Study if you want to do Exemplary work)

- Sentences Explained. Listen to an audio clip about sentences. You might even find it funny. Click here.
- When writing sentences it is importance to have the correct subject/verb agreement. You will do every activity and then print your results.
 - You will choose the correct verb tenses (present, past, past participle), recognize correct verb forms (ran instead of runned), and recognize subject/verb agreement (I am, he is).

- Click on each content type. Each content type has 6 levels. Once you have reached the end, or the game is over, don't forget to click on details and print your results.
- As a viper, make sure you take a bite out of the words that will give you perfect subject/verb agreement. To begin click here.

- Click on details and print your results. I want to see how you did. Do not print the certificate. Make sure you click on details.
- School House Rock - Conjunctions: How do they work? To find out click here.
- Time to join sentences. Try not to get TRAPPED. Click here.
Time for some EXTREME aerial sports.

Experienced individuals can do some pretty neat tricks. Click on the picture to see.

9. Write ten complete sentences. You will use your spelling words.
 - Get a sheet of notebook paper.
 - Write the correct heading: First, last, date, class - right hand corner.
 - Skip lines
 - Use your best handwriting.
 - Don't forget to use Capital letters when it is necessary. Use the right punctuation.
10. On another sheet of paper. Write a five sentence paragraph about extreme sports. The following questions may help you get some ideas: Which was your favorite extreme sport video? Would you do an extreme sport? Which one? If no, why not?
 - Get a sheet of notebook paper.
 - Write the correct heading: First, last, date, class - right hand corner.
 - Skip lines
 - Use your best handwriting.

- Don't forget use Capital letters when it is necessary. Use the right punctuation.